TABLE 2 Summary of Fees Imposed Annually Under Act 410
A. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, TRADE AND CONSUMER PROTECT
1. Pesticides [s. 94.681 (2)]
Basic fee: $100 license fee
Groundwater fee: $2,000 for each manufacturer of the active ingredients of pesticide [40 manufacturers] $300 for distributors [660 distributors] $100 for distributors of only one pesticide [100 distributor: Total groundwater fee collected:
$ 28J
[Fee collected before the end of the year for an annual license issued for the following calendar year. Fee first collected in late 1984 for the 1985 licenses.]
2. Fertilizer [s. 94.64 (4) (an)]
Basic fee: $0.10 per ton for inspections; $0.10 per ton for research
Groundwater fee: $0.10 per ton; 1,300,000 tons
Total groundwater fee collected: $
13(
[Fee collected after each six-month reporting period—January to June and Jul; December. Fee first collected for the July to December 1984 reporting period.]
B. DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES
1. Septage Haulers [s. 146.20 (4s) (d)]
Basic fee: $25 license fee for residents; $50 for nonresidents
Groundwater fee: $50 per license; 705 licenses
Total groundwater fee collected:
$ 3J:
[Fee collected in June for the following fiscal year. Fee first collected in June 1984.]
2. Wastewater and Sludge Land Disposal [s. 147.033] Basic fee: None
Groundwater fee: $100 per permittee; 1,010 permittees Total groundwater fee collected: $ 101
[Fee proposed by DNR to be collected before the end of the year for the subsequent calendar year. Fee proposed to be first collected for calendar year 1985.'
3. Solid and Hazardous Waste Disposal [s. 144.441 (7) and SEC. 2203 (38)] Basic fee: Generally, $0.035 per ton for solid waste; $0.35 per ton fo:
hazardous waste; $0.001 for mine waste rock Within this range, other fees apply to different wastes Groundwater fee: $0.10 per ton; 6,300,000 tons
$0.01 per ton for prospecting or mining waste; no current disposal
Total groundwater fee collected: $
630
[Fee collected in April for the total amount of waste disposed during the previ( calendar year. Fee first collected for waste disposed on and after January 1, 19